BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE

Henry E. Mazurek is an accomplished trial lawyer who brings to Clayman & Rosenberg LLP more than eighteen years of experience in the areas of criminal defense, complex commercial litigation and regulatory enforcement proceedings. Henry has served as lead trial counsel in dozens of criminal cases in federal and state courts nationwide, and achieved acquittals for clients facing charges ranging from federal money laundering and mail fraud to narcotics conspiracy and RICO homicide. In addition, he has successfully argued numerous appeals before both state and federal appellate courts.

Henry's representations have included the CEO of a major private company in New York, a high-level executive of a California-based technology firm and the managing member of an international hedge fund. He also has represented several clients in the antiques and art markets involving U.S. Customs enforcement matters and in criminal investigations.

HIGHLIGHTS

Henry began his legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Franklin S. Van Antwerpen of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He then served as a federal public defender in San Diego, CA. Before joining Clayman & Rosenberg LLP, Henry practiced in the business crimes group of a large New York law firm, served as counsel to one of New York's leading criminal defense attorneys and was a principal of his own law firm.

Henry was named a Super Lawyer™ for the New York-Metro area in 2011 by a vote of his peers in the area of White Collar Criminal Litigation.

EDUCATION

Henry is a graduate of Georgetown University (summa cum laude) and Harvard Law School.
